HMRC ENQUIRIES

What are the risks?

Enquiries are becoming ever more complex which means explaining the intricate and unique tax positions of our clients to HMRC takes more time, incurring more expense as a consequence.

We want to achieve the best possible outcome without you having to worry about the time and costs involved in defending you to the fullest. Having an expert who understands your business and your tax affairs is key to dealing with HMRC enquiries.

HMRC are using their compliance resources to undertake targeted campaigns and cross-tax enquiries in an attempt to maximise the tax it can recover.

HMRC CONTINUE TO NARROW THE TAX GAP

In the financial year 2021 to 2022, HMRC generated total tax revenue of £731.1 billion, which remains a significant amount despite the impact of COVID-19 on individuals and businesses.

The UK tax gap is estimated to be 5.1% and there has been a long-term reduction in the overall tax gap, falling from 7.5% in 2005/6. This means HMRC secured nearly 95% of all taxes due against the backdrop of COVID-19.

Compliance yield is up from £30.4 billion in 2020/21 to £30.8 billion; £2.7 billion was related to individuals, £2.5 billion from wealthy individuals, £11.1 billion from small and mid-sized businesses and £10.2 billion from large businesses.

With HMRC's continued investment in compliance, ensure you are protected with our comprehensive tax investigations package.

How we can protect you

No one can prevent an investigation, but our tax investigations package will enable us to:

Explain any complex or technical tax challenges that are raised during the enquiry without any restrictions due to cost

Challenge HMRC's assertions and assumptions head on, establish that the basis of any enquiry is correct and make sure your case is handled fairly

Ensure the tax inspector is only requesting relevant information and documents, and provide all supporting evidence from our files relating to your return

Handle all communication with HMRC, including letters, phone calls or notices issued

Prepare for and attend any face-to-face meetings with HMRC

Ensure you receive the best defence to protect your tax position

Whether it's a cross-tax enquiry, a technical challenge or a detailed books and records review, our tax investigations package is designed to get you the best possible result and is why we strongly recommend that all our clients subscribe.

For an annual charge, you can rest assured that you are protected against the professional costs associated with an HMRC enquiry. The cost of not doing so could be an unnecessarily high tax bill.

Who's most at risk of a tax investigation?

Tax investigations can happen to anyone – whether you are an individual or in business – however good your records are. HMRC regularly undertake random enquiries as a means of policing the system.

LARGE BUSINESS – CROSS-TAX ENQUIRY

HMRC undertook a full review of the accounting records of the business and the tax affairs of the owners of a care sector group. All taxes were reviewed and required extensive input from the practice, with HMRC officers spending five days on site. 18 months later, the enquiry closed with a significant tax settlement and accountancy fees met by the tax investigations package and not the client.

HIGH-NET-WORTH INDIVIDUALS

HMRC sought to check the HNW individual's domicile status, requesting a great deal of information over a four-year period. The practice was at the client's side throughout and after several years, agreement was reached with HMRC. Despite having a tax bill, fees of over £75,000 were met by the tax investigations package.

PERSONAL TAX ENQUIRY

HMRC opened an enquiry into an individual's Capital Gains Tax position, rollover relief and income from property. At the outset, HMRC requested a substantial amount of information. A detailed reply was provided, but HMRC continued to challenge the claim for rollover relief. After further correspondence, the enquiry was closed without any amendment to the return. The fees incurred for representation in respect of the enquiry totalled £13,000.
